The data will be obtained from you directly.

Legal basis for the data processing:

This use of personal data is based on article 6, paragraph 1, letters c) (legal obligation) and e) (performance of a task in the public interest) GDPR read together with § 3, numeral 7 of the 2002 University Act (“Support of national and international cooperation in the field of academic research and teaching and art”).

Purpose of the data processing:

We collect your personal data for processing and transmission of data for the organisation and management of events and conferences.

Advertising of the event with personal data:

Personal data of selected persons such as lecturers and participants in a panel discussion (name, employer, photograph) are published for the purpose of advertising the event.

Data processing for purposes of management and/or transmittal of contact data to other participants

To fulfil the purpose of conferences, congresses and seminars (exchanging ideas within the academic community) contact data may be transmitted or rather processed in folders – only made available to participants.

Data processing for purposes of submission of abstracts

Submission of your academic work for the event in question is not possible without collecting, storing and processing personal data. This occurs exclusively for the purpose of organising and conducting the event. Your data are only passed on to third parties directly involved in the event organisation procedure and only if the procedure makes this necessary (e.g. Academic committee organising society, reviewer, publisher).

Data processing for purposes of the creation of a conference volume

Publication of the written submissions to this event in a conference volume is not possible without collecting, storing and processing personal data. This occurs exclusively for the purpose of organising and conducting the event. Your data are only passed on to third parties directly involved in the event organisation procedure and only if the procedure makes this necessary (e.g. Academic committee organising society, reviewer, publisher).

Category of recipients of the personal data:

Your personal data are forwarded on the basis of statutory regulations or rather contractual agreement to the following recipients who are directly involved in the event procedure and if the organisational procedure requires this.

- Hotels
- Shuttle service
- Advertising of the event in newsletters or posters (speakers only)
- Other conference participants

Transmittal to third parties:

- No third-party firms work outside the EU.

Retention period for storage:

We store your data for the purpose of conducting the event and beyond that for the duration of statutory retention periods or as long as legal claims can be asserted or rather as long as consent was given.

As the data subject affected by the processing of these data, you have the following rights:

- the right to information;
- the right to rectification;
- the right to erasure;
- the right to restriction of processing of your data;
- the right to data portability;
- the right to object.

As the data subject, you also have the right to complain to the Data Protection Authority concerning any alleged inadmissible data processing or our failure to fulfil our obligations arising from GDPR.
